

Open-Ended Questions

1. Who does Cato live with?
2. How did Cato get from his apartment down to street level?
3. What was life like for people who lived on the South Side?
4. Free way of life, thought Cato, looking at a couple of tatty cafés serving cups of foaming grey broth and a selection of discoloured cakes.

Cato read an info-mation board and questioned his 'free way of life'. Which aspects of Cato's life are not very free?

5. When Cato left Room T1, he had a feeling that his life might have just changed forever. Explain why he felt like this.