

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Mr Crisp didn't find it very humourous/humorous/humerous when he discovered three drenched children in his swimming pool. He thought it was outragos/outragous/outrageous. James came up with a spontaneous/spontanious/spontaneous story about window cleaning for charity.

2. Complete the sentences below using a and an.

James's mum really wanted to be ___ opera singer. He came up with ___ idea. He wanted ___ trip to Buckingham Palace, so told his mum that she could sing ___ song or two to passing tourists.

3. Rewrite the following sentence so that it is in the present perfect tense.

James's mum sang songs outside the palace.

4. Complete the sentence below by adding a fronted adverbial.

_____, the princess opened the window and grabbed the paper.

5. Add the correct punctuation to the sentence below.

I know that you were up to no good at my house last night scowled Tabatha