

Porchester Park Project

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar - Chapter 3

1. Circle the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Freya was beginning to feel like a failier/failure. At first, the task had felt like a big advensure / adventure, but there was not much pleasure / pleashore to be had from scrubbing paint off park furnitcher / furniture.

2. Write a pronoun that could replace the underlined word in the sentence below.

Every day, Freya's dad tried to reassure Freya that they would get everything done in time.

3. Copy the sentence below. Add any missing punctuation marks.

That was Miss Turner explained Dad

Serial Mash

4. Put a tick in each row to show why an apostrophe has been used.

Sentence	Apostrophe to mark singular possession	Apostrophe to mark plural possession	Apostrophe to mark the place of missing letters
Freya's army was small but determined.
Everybody had worked hard; the volunteers' hands were sore from all the scrubbing.
They'd all worked hard scrubbing paint off the swings and slides.
Despite all the hard work, the kids' playground still looked terrible.

5. Write sentences to show that you understand the difference between the pairs of homophones. The first one has been done for you.

Homophones	Sentence 1	Sentence 2
weather/whether	It was easier to clear up the park when the weather was dry.	Freya didn't know whether they would be able to finish clearing up the park before the inspection.
accept/except peace/piece		