

PE GAMES

We have to play games that don't involve too much contact or using lots of equipment at the moment.

Imagine you are in a group of 10 children.

Design three games that will help keep you fit and healthy – two for your body and one for your brain.

Draw a diagram and explain how each game is played and what parts of the body it is exercising.