

Core Basic Skills

Writing: The children will learn to write:

- A retell of a myth
- A letter of complaint
- Historical fiction

Reading:

Roman and Greek Myths and Legends

The children will learn these reading skills:

- To use past experiences, what I have previously read and what I know about to support my understanding.
- To develop prediction skills.
- To develop my skills to skim read text and scan to find information and ideas

Maths: the children will learn these mathematical skills:

Multiplication and Division
Fractions
Times tables

Computing: the children will learn the following skills:

Internet Safety
Unit 3 Creating Media Photo
Editing.

Topic Title: Ancient History of Europe

Hook for Learning:

Launch: Greek Myths, Gods and Goddesses (Mythologica by Steve Kershaw)
Land: Parent event – Roman dig

Healthy Lifestyles

Internet safety (8th February Internet Safety Day)
Understanding friendships

Global Dimension:

The legacy of invading another country

Environmental Challenge:

Forest Schools

Technical Work:

DT – Creating a Roman shield

Creative Learning:

Greek patterns
Roman mosaics and Roman coins

Main subject: the children will research...

- Research the Greek Gods and Goddesses.
- The history of life in Roman Britain and understand what made the Romans so successful.
- How Roman life was different to life today.

Cross Curricular Writing: Application of skills, 1 piece per fortnight

- A letter from Boudicca persuading people to join her army.
- Information text – Greek Gods and Goddesses

Cross Curricular Reading: Application of skills
Greek myths.

Non-fiction texts related to the Romans.

Cross Curricular Maths –
Roman numerals

Visits: Roman experience day.

Home Learning:

Queensmead Quests
Reading
Spellings
Times tables
TTRS & NumBots