CHAPTER FOUR

What Do We Do About Matthew?

Every day my mum delivered my meals to my room on a tray. Lunchtime's selection consisted of one pre-wrapped ham and cheese sandwich, one sealed carton of orange juice, one banana and three unopened bottles of water to drink throughout the day. Very safe. Very sterile.

Food was always accompanied by Mum trying to have a chat. I tried not to say much and to avoid her eyes if I could.

"Mr Charles's grandchildren look sweet, don't they? It'll be nice having some kids next door for the summer holidays, won't it, Matthew?"

Tell your partner: When does the story take place?

Lunch time on a school day
